Dear [REDACTED]

I refer to your above request under the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002, which was logged by us as FOI/11725.

The following information has been provided in response to your request.

Please provide details of the current (as at today's date) average weekly rates and costs which privately funded care home residents are charged by the council for each care home either owned and / or operated by the council. When we refer to privately funded residents we are referring to those residents who are assessed as having capital above the upper limit of £27,250 (and excluding any entitlement to free care). Please provide the requested information on a per care home basis.

Stirling Council do not have any Council owned or managed care homes as our homes are all short stay assessment beds. In terms of Section 17 of the Freedom of Information (Scotland) Act 2002 we provide notice that we do not hold any information in relation to your request.

If you are dissatisfied with the way in which your request for information has been dealt with you are entitled to request a review of the actions and decisions made by the Council in relation to your request. Your request for review must be in writing or some other permanent form stating your name and address for correspondence, and specifying the request for information to which your request for review relates and why you are dissatisfied with the response.

You must make your request for review not later than 40 working days after the expiry of the 20 working day period of response to your initial request by the Council or not later than 40 working days after the receipt by you of the information provided, any fees notice issued or any notification of refusal or partial refusal.

Your request for review should be addressed in the first instance to:

Records & Information Compliance Manager, Stirling Council, Viewforth, STIRLING FK8 2ET email foi@stirling.gov.uk

The Records & Information Compliance Manager will then arrange for an appropriate officer to undertake a review. Please note that in any email you must state your name.

If you are dissatisfied with how your request for a review has been dealt with, then you are entitled to ask the Scottish Information Commissioner to investigate your case. You must ask the Scottish Information Commissioner no later than 6 months after the date of receipt by you of the notice or decision you are dissatisfied with or within 6 months of the expiry of the period of 20 working days from receipt by the Council of your request for review.

The Scottish Information Commissioner recommends that you appeal online. The online appeal service is available here: www.itspublicknowledge.info/Appeal

You do not need to submit an appeal online, but if you do it will ensure the Commissioner is provided with all the information required to investigate your case quickly.

For further information about making an appeal to the Scottish Information Commissioner, including how to submit an appeal by email or post, see:

<http://www.itspublicknowledge.info/YourRights/Unhappywiththeresponse/OtherWaysToAppeal.aspx>

If you do not have access to the internet, you can contact the Scottish Information Commissioner at Kinburn Castle, Doubledykes Road, St Andrews, Fife KY16 9DS, Tel: [REDACTED] Email: enquiries@itspublicknowledge.info

You may also appeal against a decision of the Scottish Information Commissioner but on a point of law only. Any such appeal must be made within 42 days of the date of intimation of the Commissioner's decision notice.
